Divisional Forest Officer,
Simla Forest division.

Simla-4, the 22nd July, 1965

No. Ft. 1061-2/62-(M).—Whereas it is considered necessary that portion of the Forest specified in the Notification shall be closed for a period of 10 years and that the rights of private persons over such portion shall be suspended during such period for the purpose of regeneration and artificial restocking in order to check erosion and whereas the remainder of such Forests is sufficient, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the due exercise of the rights suspended in the portion so closed, and whereas it is further considered necessary to prohibit the doing of any or all of the acts mentioned in clause (c) of section 30 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927.

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 30 of the Indian Forest Act (XVI of 1927) the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to declare that the portion of Bilaspur Forest Division, as per schedule given below shall be closed for a period of 10 (ten) years from the date of this Notification and that the rights of private persons over such portion shall remain suspended during the said period of 10 years and he is further pleased to prohibit, from the date of this Notification:—

1. The quarrying and removal of stones.
2. The burning of lime and charcoal.
3. The breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for building, for herding cattle or for any other purpose.
4. Grazing by all kinds of animals throughout the year.
5. Lopping and cutting of trees and bushes throughout the year.
6. Cutting of grass throughout the year.
7. The collection or subjection to any manufacturing in process, or removal of any forest produce in or over or from the portion so closed.

Note.—Grass cuttings may be permitted free to right holders on permits on such terms and conditions as may be made and imposed, at the discretion of the Divisional Forest Officer, Bilaspur Forest Division, Bilaspur, Himachal Pradesh.

Simla-4, the 7th October, 1965

No. Ft. 774-1/63-(M).—Whereas the forest land and waste land shown in the first schedule appended hereto are the properties of the Government or the Government has proprietary rights therein or the Government is entitled to the whole or any part of the forest produce thereof.

And whereas the Lieutenant Governor, proposes to declare the aforesaid forest land and waste land as protected forest under sub-section (i) of section 29 of the Indian Forest Act, XVI of 1927.

And whereas the Lieutenant Governor further thinks that an enquiry into and record of the nature and extent of rights of the Government and the private persons in or over the aforesaid forest land or waste land are necessary but they will occupy such length of time as in the mean-time to endanger the rights of the Government.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 29 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927 the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to appoint Shri Parkash Chand, the Forest Settlement Officer to enquire into and record the rights of the Government and of the private persons in or over the aforesaid forest land or waste land and such enquiry and record shall be made in the manner as far as practicable provided in sub-sections 6, 7, 8, 10, 11 (i), 12, 13, 14, 17, 18 & 19 of the said Act and during enquiry the Forest Settlement Officer shall exercise any or all the powers under section 72 of said Act as may be necessary.

And further in pursuance of the powers conferred by proviso to sub-section (3) of the said Act, the Lieutenant Governor, pending the aforesaid enquiry and record, does hereby declare the said forest land and waste land to be demarcated protected forest but not so as to abridge or affect any existing rights of individual or communities.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF LAW (LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT)

New Delhi, the 10th June, 1966/20th Jyaishta, 1888 (Saka)
THE JAYANTI SHIPPING COMPANY (TAKING OVER OF MANAGEMENT) ORDINANCE, 1966
(No. 4 of 1966)

Promulgated by the President in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India

An Ordinance to provide for the taking over of the management of the undertaking of the Jayanti Shipping Company Limited for a limited period in order to secure the proper management of the same.

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Jayanti Shipping Company (Taking over of Management) Ordinance, 1966.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "company" means the Jayanti Shipping Company Limited, being a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, (1 of 1956) having its registered office in the Union territory of Delhi;
- (b) "notified order" means an order notified in the Official Gazette;
- (c) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules, made under this Ordinance;
- (d) "undertaking" means the property and assets of the company;
- (e) words and expressions used but not defined in this Ordinance and defined in the Companies Act, 1956, (1 of 1956) shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

CHAPTER II

THE TAKING OVER OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE UNDERTAKING OF THE JAYANTI SHIPPING COMPANY

3. Board of Control to take over the management of the undertaking of the company.—(1) The Central Government may, by notified order, appoint a body of persons (hereinafter referred to as the "Board of Control") to take over the management of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the company or to exercise in respect of the whole or any part thereof such functions of management as may be specified in the notified order.

(2) The Board of Control shall consist of a Chairman and such number of other members not exceeding ten as the Central Government may think fit, to be appointed by that Government.

(3) The Central Government may either in the notified order issued under sub-section (1) or in a subsequent order specify that one or more members of the Board of Control shall be a full-time member or full-time members thereof.

(4) The term of office of, the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions by, and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the Board of Control shall be such as may be prescribed.

(5) The salaries, allowances and other remuneration and the conditions of service of the members of the Board of Control shall be such as may be determined by the Central Government.

(6) Any notified order issued under sub-section (1) shall have effect for such period not exceeding five years as may be specified in the order:

Provided that if the Central Government is of opinion that in order to secure the proper management of the undertaking of the company it is expedient that any such notified order should continue in force after the expiry of the period of five years as aforesaid, it may, from time to time, issue directions for such continuance for such period, not exceeding two years at a time, as may be specified in the directions, so however, that the total period of such continuance shall not exceed ten years; and where any such direction is issued, a copy thereof shall be laid, as soon as may be, before both Houses of Parliament.

4. Effect of notified order issued under section 3.—(1) On the issue of a notified order under section 3 appointing a Board of Control to take over the management of the undertaking of the company,—

- (a) all persons in charge of the management, including persons holding offices as directors or managers or any other managerial personnel of the company immediately before the issue of the notified order, shall be deemed to have vacated their offices as such;
- (b) any contract of management between the company and any managing agent or any director or any other managerial personnel thereof holding office as such immediately before the issue of the notified order shall be deemed to have terminated;
- (c) the Board of Control shall alone be entitled notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), to exercise all the powers of the Board of directors of the company (including the powers to sell or otherwise dispose of any ships or other properties or assets of the company) whether such powers are derived from the said Act or from the memorandum or articles of association of the company or from any other source;
- (d) as from the date of the notified order, all the properties, assets and effects of the company shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Board of Control who shall, as soon as may be after such date, take all such steps as may be necessary to take into its possession or control all such properties, assets and effects and all actionable claims to which the company is or appears to be entitled.

(2) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Ordinance and to the control of the Central Government, the Board of Control shall take such steps as may be necessary for the purpose of efficiently managing the business of the company and shall exercise such other powers and have such other duties as may be prescribed.

5. Power of Board of Control to appoint managing agent.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956, or in any other law for the time being in force, or in the memorandum or articles of association of the company, the Board of Control may, with a view to securing the proper management of the undertaking of the company, appoint with the previous approval of the Central Government any individual, firm or body corporate as the managing agent of the company.

(2) The managing agent shall receive such remuneration as may be determined by the Board of Control with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(3) The managing agent shall exercise in respect of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the company such functions of management as may be specified in the order of appointment and as may from time to time be entrusted to it by the Board of Control.

(4) The managing agent shall not be removed from office except with the previous permission of the Central Government.

(5) In the discharge of his functions the managing agent shall be under the general superintendence and control of the Board of Control.

(6) The management of the undertaking of the company shall be carried on pursuant to any directions given by the Board of Control in accordance with the provisions of the notified order issued under sub-section (1) of section 3 and the managing agent or any other person having any functions of management in relation to the undertaking of the company or any part thereof shall comply with such directions.

6. Contracts in bad faith etc., may be cancelled or varied.—Without prejudice to the provisions contained in section 4, the Board of Control may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, make an application to any court having jurisdiction in this behalf for the purpose of cancelling or varying any contract or agreement entered into, at any time, before the issue of the notified order under sub-section (1) of section 3, between the company and any other person and the court may, if satisfied after due inquiry that such contract or agreement had been entered into in bad faith and is detrimental to the interests of the company, make an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose that contract or agreement, and the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly.

7. No right to compensation for termination of office or contract.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no person who ceases to hold any office by reason of the provisions contained in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 4, or whose contract of management is terminated by reason of the provisions contained in clause (b) of that sub-section, shall be entitled to any compensation for the loss of office or for the premature termination of his contract of management:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of any such person to recover from the company moneys recoverable otherwise than by way of such compensation.

8. Application of Act 1 of 1956.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956, or in the memorandum or articles of association of the Company,—

- (a) it shall not be lawful for the shareholders of the company or any other person to nominate or appoint any person to be a director of the company;
- (b) no resolution passed at any meeting of the shareholders of the company shall be given effect to unless approved by the Central Government;
- (c) no proceeding for the winding up of the company or for the appointment of a liquidator or receiver in respect thereof shall lie in any court except with the consent of the Central Government.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (1), and to the other provisions contained in this Ordinance and subject to such other exceptions, restrictions and limitations, if any, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf the Companies Act, 1956, (1 of 1956) shall continue to apply to the company in the same manner as it applied thereto before the issue of the notified order under sub-section (1) of section 3.

9. Power of Central Government to cancel order notified under section 3.—If at any time it appears to the Central Government on the application of any shareholder of the company or otherwise that the purpose of the notified order may under sub-section (1) of section 3 has been fulfilled or that for any other reason it is not necessary that the order should remain in force, the Central Government may, by notified order, cancel such order and on the cancellation of any such order the management of the undertaking of the company shall revert to the shareholders of the company.

CHAPTER III

MISCELLANEOUS

10. Duty to deliver possession of property and documents relating thereto.—(1) Where a notified order has been made under sub-section (1) of section 3 in relation to the undertaking of the company, every person having possession, custody or control of any property shall deliver the property to the Board of Control or to any such person (including the managing agent) as may be authorised by the Board in this behalf.

(2) Any person who, on the commencement of this Ordinance, has in his possession or under his control any books, documents or other papers relating to the undertaking of the company shall be liable to account for the said books, documents and papers to the Board of Control and shall deliver them up to the Board or to any such person (including the managing agent) as may be authorised by the Board in this behalf.

(3) The Central Government may take all necessary steps for securing possession of all properties of the company.

11. Duty to furnish particulars.—The company shall, within ten days from the commencement of this Ordinance or within such further period as the Central Government may allow in this behalf, furnish to the Board of Control a complete inventory of all the properties and assets (including particulars of book debts and investments and belongings) of the company at the commencement of this Ordinance, and of all liabilities and obligations of the company subsisting at such commencement and also of all agreements entered into by the company and in force from such commencement.

12. Powers of inspection.—(1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether any property is the property of the company or for any other purpose mentioned in this

Ordinance or the rules made thereunder, any person authorised by the Central Government in this behalf shall have the right to—

- (a) enter and inspect any premises;
- (b) require any person having the possession custody or control of any register or record of the company to produce such register or record;
- (c) require the occupier of any property belonging to, or claimed to be the property of, the company, to submit to the person so authorised such accounts, books or other documents or to furnish to him such information as he may reasonably think necessary; and
- (d) examine any person having the control of, or employed in connection with, the company and require him to make any statement touching the affairs of the company.

(2) Any person authorised by the Central Government under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

13. Penalty for false statements.—(1) If any person,—

- (a) when required by this Ordinance or by any order made under this Ordinance to make any statement or furnish any information, makes any statement or furnishes any information which is false in any material particular and which he knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, or
- (b) makes any such statement as aforesaid in any book, account, record, return or other document which he is required by any order made under this Ordinance to submit, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Any person, who—

- (a) having in his possession, custody or control any property forming part of the assets of the company, wrongfully withholds such property from the Board of Control, or
- (b) wrongfully obtains possession of any property forming part of the assets of the company, or
- (c) wilfully withholds or fails to produce to any person authorised under this Ordinance, any register, record or other document which may be in his possession, custody or control, or
- (d) fails, without any reasonable cause, to submit any accounts, books or other documents, when required to do so, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both.

14. Limitation on prosecution.—No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this Ordinance except with the previous sanction of the Central Government or of an officer authorised by that Government in this behalf.

15. Protection of action taken under Ordinance.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Central Government or the Board of Control or any member thereof or any other person (including the managing agent) for any thing which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

16. Overriding effect to Ordinance.—The provisions of this Ordinance or any order or rule made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any law other than this Ordinance or any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Ordinance.

17. Payment of remuneration and expenses out of the funds of company.—All salaries, allowances and other remuneration paid to the Chairman and other members of the Board of Control, the managing agent or any other person who may be appointed or employed in connection with the affairs of the management of the company and all other expenses duly incurred in connection with such management shall be paid out of the funds of the company.

18. Power of Central Government to give directions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance the Central Government may give such directions to the Board of Control as that Government may deem fit for the proper management of the undertaking of the company and the Board of Control shall comply with such directions.

19. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Ordinance shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

20. Power to remove difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government may, by order as occasion requires, do anything (not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance) which appears to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

S. RADHAKRISHNAN,
President.

S. P. SEN-VARMA,
Secretary to the Government of India.

New Delhi, the 30th June, 1966/9th Asadha, 1888 (Saka)

THE CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1966 (No. 7 of 1966)

Promulgated by the President in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India

An Ordinance further to amend the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952

WHEREAS a Bill further to amend the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, has been introduced in Parliament but has not yet been passed; and it is considered necessary to give effect to the provisions of the Bill with certain modifications;

AND WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Criminal Law Amendment (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Act 46 of 1952 to be temporarily amended.—During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall have effect as if it had been amended as specified in section 3 and 4.

3. Amendment of section 8.—In sub-section (3A) of section 8 of the principal Act, for the word and figures "section 350", the words and figures "sections 350 and 549" shall be substituted.

4. Insertion of new section 11.—After section 10 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

"11. Military, naval and air force laws not to be affected.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall affect the jurisdiction exercisable by, or the procedure applicable to, any court or other authority under any military, naval or air force law.

(2) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that for the purposes of any such law as is referred to in sub-section (1), the court of the special Judge shall be deemed to be a court of ordinary criminal justice".

5. Validation and indemnity.—No trial or other proceeding held or taken before, and no sentence passed by a court martial or any other authority under any military, naval or air force law before the commencement of the Criminal Law Amendment (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966, shall be called in question in any court merely on the ground that the court martial or other authority had no jurisdiction by virtue of the provisions of the principal Act and all such trials, proceedings and sentences shall, notwithstanding any judgment or order of any court, be as valid and operative as if they had been held, taken or passed in accordance with law and accordingly no suit or other legal proceeding shall be maintained or continued against any person whatever on the ground that any such trial, proceeding or sentence was not held, taken or passed in accordance with law.

6. Saving.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance in the principal Act as amended by this Ordinance—

(a) cases pending immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance before a special Judge in which one or more persons subject to military, naval or air force law is or are charged with and tried for an offence under the principal Act together with any other person or persons not so subject, and

(b) cases pending immediately before such commencement before a special Judge in which one or more persons subject to military, naval or air force law is or are alone charged with and tried for an offence under the principal Act and charges have already been framed against such person or persons, shall be tried and disposed of by the special Judge.

(2) Where in any case pending immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance before a special Judge one or more persons subject to military, naval or air force law is or are alone charged with and tried for an offence under the principal Act and charges have not been framed against such person or persons before such commencement or where, on appeal or on revision against any sentence passed by a special Judge in any case in which one or more persons so subject was or were alone tried, the appellate court has directed that such person or persons be retried and on such retrial charges have not been framed against such person or persons before such commencement, then, in either case, the special Judge shall follow the procedure laid down in section 549 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (5 of 1898) as if the special Judge were a Magistrate.

S. RADHAKRISHNAN,
President.

S. P. SEN-VERMA,
Secretary to the Government of India.

THE ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1966

(No. 9 OF 1966)

Promulgated by the President in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India

An Ordinance further to amend the Essential Commodities Act, 1955

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Essential Commodities (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Act 10 of 1955 to be temporarily amended.—During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall have effect as if it had been amended as specified in sections 3 to 5.

3. Amendment of section 3.—In section 3 of the principal Act, after sub-section (3A); the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3B) Where any person is required by an order made with reference to clause (f) of sub-section (2) to sell any grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils to the Central Government or a State Government or to an officer or agent of such Government and either no notification in respect of such foodgrains, edible oilseeds or to edible oils has been issued under sub-section (3A) or any such notification having been issued has ceased to remain in force by efflux of time, then, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), there shall be paid to that person such price for the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils as may be specified in that order having regard to—

(i) the controlled price, if any, fixed under this section or by or under any other law for the time being in force for such grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils; and

(ii) the price for such grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils prevailing or likely to prevail during the post-harvest period in the area to which that order applies.

Explanations.—For the purposes of this sub-section, “post-harvest period” in relation to any area means a period of three months beginning from the last day of the fortnight during which harvesting operations normally commence.”

4. Insertion of new sections 6A to 6D.—After section 6 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“6A. Confiscation of foodgrains, edible oilseeds and edible oils.—Where any foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils are seized in pursuance of an order made under section 3 in relation thereto, they may be produced, without any unreasonable delay, before the Collector of the district or the Presidency-town in which such foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils are seized and whether or not a prosecution is instituted for the contravention of such order, the Collector, if satisfied that there has been a contravention of the order, may order confiscation of the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils.

6B. Issue of show cause notice before confiscation of foodgrains, etc.—No order confiscating any foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils shall be made under section 6A unless the owner of such articles or the person from whom they are seized—

(a) is given a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to confiscate the articles;

(b) is given an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice against the grounds of confiscation; and

(c) is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter:

Provided that the notice referred to in clause (a) or the representation referred to in clause (b) may, at the request of the person concerned, be oral.

6C. Appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of confiscation under section 6A may, within one month from the date of the communication to him of such order, appeal to the State Government concerned and the State Government may, after giving an opportunity to the appellant to be heard, pass such order as it may think fit confirming, modifying or annulling the order appealed against.

(2) Where an order under section 6A is modified or annulled by the State Government, or where in a prosecution instituted for the contravention of the order in respect of which an order of confiscation has been made under section 6A, the person concerned is acquitted, and in either case it is not possible for any reason to return the foodgrains or edible oilseeds or edible oils seized, such person shall be paid the price therefor as if the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils, as the case may be, had been sold to the Government; and such price shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3B) of section 3.

6D. Award of confiscation not to interfere with other punishments.—The award of any confiscation under this Act by the Collector shall not prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under this Act.”

5. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act, in clause (b) of sub-section (1),—

(a) in the opening paragraph, after the words, “seem fit”, the words “including, in the case of an order relating to foodgrains, any packages, coverings or receptacles in which they are found and any animal, vehicle, vessel or other conveyance used in carrying foodgrains” shall be inserted;

(b) in the proviso, after the words “any part of the property”, the words “or any packages, coverings or receptacles or any animal, vehicle, vessel or other conveyance” shall be inserted.

S. RADHAKRISHNAN,
President.

S. P. SEN-VERMA,
Secretary to the Government of India.
